

What to bring with you when you move into the Ridge

Before moving into the Ridge, please talk with all of your roommates to determine who will bring items to share in the common spaces. No need for everyone to bring forks and cups! 😊 Below is a list of items we suggest students have in their apartment. The list is a compilation of recommendations from former Ridge students. Everyone is different, so you may not need everything on the list, however, those who came before you found the following items helpful to have in their Ridge apartment.
